

Man Alive

Funeral for a Friend

I've got a bone to pick with this
So come on, just say it
If there's a reason to be believed
Then no one is hurt

The pain that it caused, deeper than any wound can make

Man alive, but feeling dead inside
Day to day with the daily grind of
Same old shit but different day

Waving at the opposition
Ending words with slight convictions
Spitting in the face of these petty situations
These situations

The pain that it caused, deeper than any wound can make

Man alive, but feeling dead inside
Day to day with the daily grind of
Same old shit but different day
Another habit ready to break

I'm gonna leave here with my head held high
There's time enough for wasting if we want

Consider different ways of seeing the same old things
We're used to seeing now

The pain that it caused, deeper than any wound can make

Man alive, but feeling dead inside
Day to day with the daily grind of

Different day
