Where Did It Go Wrong

Funeral Party

I had to find you when I was alone
You told me you'd be there but nobody was home
You put out no effort and don't even try
And you left just for coming, you know that's a lie
You know

I have a life of my own now and nothing compares
The only thing you bring to it was all your despair
I have a life of my own now and nothing compares
The only thing you bring to it was all your despair

Where did it go wrong, and where have you gone?
Tell me what happened and where did you run?
Where did it go wrong, and where have you gone?
Tell me what happened to us, to us

I had to focus to find what had been misplaced
I had to search off all the shit in front of my face
And then you walked in on timing, more perfect than the rest
I love the way you wear your hair, the way you wear that dress
You wear it so well

You live a life of your own, girl, and I can't compare
Oh yeah, I wanna be in it, let me be your despair
You live a life of your own, girl, and I can't compare
Oh yeah, I wanna be in it, let me be your despair

Where did it go wrong, and where have you gone?
Tell me what happened and where did you run?
Where did you run, where did you run, where did you run?
Where did you run, where did you run?
Where did you run, oh, where did you run?

Oh, you ran away
Yeah, you ran away
Yeah, you ran away
Yeah, you ran away
