

My Innermost

Funker Vogt

On this road we all travel
Strangers come and stranger go
All these faces passing by
An endless stream on our timeline

All these faces tell only lies
But a fake smile cannot hide
You'll find the truth in their eyes
Look deep down into their eyes

So I will close my eyes
Keep all these liars out
Protect my innermost, protect my soul
I will close my eyes
Keep all these liars out
I will go this way without a doubt

On this road I will travel
I am save and alone
I see no one, no one sees me
In the darkness of my soul

So I will close my eyes
Keep all these liars out
Protect my innermost, protect my soul
I will close my eyes
Keep all these liars out
I will go this way without a doubt

All these faces tell only lies
But a fake smile cannot hide
You'll find the truth in their eyes
Look deep down into their eyes

So I will close my eyes
Keep all these liars out
Protect my innermost, protect my soul
I will close my eyes
Keep all these liars out
I will go this way without a doubt
