Suspicious Signs

Fury In The Slaughterhouse

Say what's that thing
On your back
Well, I guess it's a hair
And the hair is black

I got you on the phone You said you're all alone I heard these boots on the floor And I beg you, baby please, no more

Suspicious signs What do I see? Suspicious signs Suspicious signs

Now everything's so strange
Not how it used to be
I call you up at three
And you say you can't talk to me

Say what's it all about Why do you talk that loud? I hear your fingertips Playing with Italian hips
