

Then She Said

Fury In The Slaughterhouse

I saw her in one of those cafe houses being myself so near never thought that nice things hurt and all ended here click, click, click said the man I remember him so well he said "come on, you got to be careful cause her heaven could be your hell" then she said.....,and I dream that she someday might come back

P.S. are her initials and sometimes they gonna make me cry but I don't believe that this is the reason that I sing P.S. goodbye 5,6,7,8,9,10 this is o.k.with me and I cry later then and I don't believe that all colours are gone cause the rest is grey and this is better than none
then she said.....

and I dream that she someday might come back
then she said
she said rock'n roll is really dead
then she said
you are never leaving this head
