

Disappear

Fuse ODG

I need, I need that magic.

No stress, no fear,
Don't shed no tears,
I'm gonna pull some strings that make your problems disappear.

Problems disappear
Problems disappear
Problems disappear
Make your problems disappear
Problems disappear
Problems disappear
Problems disappear

Don't worry baby, lie here and fall asleep.

My shoulders for you,
Baby crying, I'll hold onto you,
You could rely on it,
I'm hoping you do,
We can start fresh and continue.
My chest is for you,
So you can lie in as my heart beats for you,
Now put your life on it.
My heart beats for two,
I will survive on it until it brings the two.
My legs are for you,
Now go on its yours to make all your moves,
I kick down walls to take what is you,
Now I'm so sure my happiness is you.
My fist here for you,
Now you can use it to fight off your glues.

I give you my all plus a kiss,
How can your problems resist this?

No stress, no fear,
Don't shed no tears,
I'm gonna pull some strings that make your problems disappear.

Problems disappear
Problems disappear
Problems disappear
Make your problems disappear
Problems disappear
Problems disappear
Problems disappear

Don't worry baby, lie here and fall asleep.

And my ear is for you,
I wanna hear all your news,
Whether it's bad or it's good,
Baby as long as we sharing it's cool.
My arms is all yours,
I'll pick you up if you fall,
I'll pick you up if you call,

I'll come over and handle it, ooh.
And my eyes is on you,
I see everything that you got me through,
I see that love that is all to you,
As I see to it I feel so with you.
My tongue for your wishes,
Speak greatness to existence.

I give you my all plus a kiss,
How can your problems resist this?
