

A Thousand Lovers In A Day

Future Bible Heroes

So you thought I loved you
Well, I did too, but my love has gone astray
All the love you gave me just left me so blue
So I found another way
A thousand lovers in a day
A thousand lovers everyday
I need more than one boy
More than one man
While the sun shines
I'll make hay
I need more than one girl
And yes I can cause soon I'll be old and gray
