

Good Thing I Don't Have Any Feelings

Future Bible Heroes

you took your eyes away and your amazing hair you took the sky away and all the breathable air and you left an empty room a useless bed
and a suicidal moon

it's a good thing I don't have any feelings a damn good thing that I can't feel a damn thing anymore

you took your love away all that amazing love you took the memory of whatever love was and you said:
"I hate you
I hate you
I hate you,"

a damn good thing that I can't feel a damn thing I don't have any feelings
anymore
