

My Blue Hawaii

Future Bible Heroes

I admit I just can't say no to the land of the volcano pineapples, guavas, mangos martin denny playing tangos every little island teaches the wisdom of its unique beaches you can find your own messiah in the pit of a papaya my blue hawaii, palms waving in the breeze my blue hawaii calls to me how I want to be with you now, dancing at an all-night luau cause I'm just a dancing fool-a when I do the hula-hula I just want to take you away when I hear "aloha oe" picture us in cocktail glass shirts flower leis, cameras, and grass skirts
