

Someone

Future of Forestry

Turn my head
Break my heart with mercy
Just move my feet
Move my hands, grow so gently

Mmm for love is still in me
We'll hunger and we'll bleed
The rising from the dust
We've seen how this is ours

'Cause you're someone..
You're someone I can trust
And you're someone
To light the way for us

Rest my head
In your arms, so softly
Just let your breath
Breathe its sweetness around me

Mmm for love is still in me
We'll hunger and we'll bleed
The rising from the dust
We've seen how this is ours

'Cause you're someone..
You're someone I can trust
And you're someone
To light the way for us

'Cause you're someone..
You're someone I can trust
And you're someone
To light the way for us
