Flo Rida (whoop whoop) talk to me

Hey I know everybody aint perfect
Baby what did I do to deserve this
No way, you're making me nervous
I can't afford to be climbing your circus
Like why did I open the curtain
Gave you my heart when I should've been certain
Knew I was allergic, I need a surgeon
Tryin' to be another person
This wasn't part of the plan
Leaving each other I don't understand
More than your lover, your permanent man
Won't be another that can do what I can
Right on the double I gave you my hand
But for the trouble why do it again
I cannot juggle just being your friend
After this trouble my heart needs a mend (a mend, a mend, a mend)
