

One of Them

G-Eazy

I seen that big house, I need one of them
I seen that Lambo, I need one of them
I seen them PJ's, I need one of them
I see them bad bitches, got tons of them
I seen them Rollies, I need one of them
I see them Grammys, I need one of them
I seen them millions, I need some of them
See normal people, I'm not one of them
Sorry, sorry, see normal people I'm not one of them

The first time I seen that Ferrari in person
I said "yeah, I want that I'm certain"
And this bus pass I've got, yeah this shit's just not working
The world sees me one way
I look in the mirror and see a whole other person
Fuck normal, if you don't agree, I ignore you
I'm blowing this money, fuck being resourceful
I'm here for war and of course I'll go get it
I get it, I feel like I walked through a portal
I'm here, I'm winning, bitch look at the scoreboard
I score more, I tour more, think twice
Are you sure you're more popping?
Popping champagne and I pour more
I get what I want and then I just want more, more
Yeah, greedy as hell, I'm not satisfied...
See now that I have this new status I
Don't even have to try
I feeling this mastermind

I seen that big house, I need one of them
I seen that Lambo, I need one of them
I seen them PJ's, I need one of them
I see them bad bitches, got tons of them
I seen them Rollies, I need one of them
I see them Grammys, I need one of them
I seen them millions, I need some of them
See normal people, I'm not one of them
Sorry, sorry, see normal people I'm not one of them

I am materialistic
I want all these things that I never had growing up
Things that I can get now that I got paper
Like her, I take her
I seen them big houses like "I wanna stay there"
Could not have felt it if you've never seen
I want to marry Cara Delevingne
My closet is full of that Bape and Supreme
I'm with your girl in my world we're gone off the heem
I want all the dumb shit that money can buy
You're reaching bruh you got no bitches you're dry
You posers you kill me like fuck you just die
What the fuck do you do this for I wonder why
I cannot fathom, she she's a bad one
With friends with her too damn, I just got to have them
Three songs a day every one I'm on spazzing
This shit is not random, I told you

I seen that big house, I need one of them
I seen that Lambo, I need one of them
I seen them PJ's, I need one of them
I see them bad bitches, got tons of them
I seen them Rollies, I need one of them
I see them Grammys, I need one of them
I seen them millions, I need some of them
See normal people, I'm not one of them
Sorry, sorry, see normal people I'm not one of them
