

She Is

Gabe Bondoc

She runs free and the sun in my sky
But she comes to me when she's got nowhere to hide
She tried to leave once but she didn't instead came crying
My shoulder her head
I count the seconds that she isn't around
Every single minute is a new treasure found
Oh she's my angel she's my moments of joy
She's my baby
She's my love love love love
She's my love love love love
She's my love love love love
La la la la
In the middle of the night
I feel her holding me tight
Face to face in between yea that's asleep in the night
Never enough blanket but to me it's alright
She can have it, she can have it all
She's my love love love love
She's my love love love love
She's my love love love love
La la la la
She's the sun in my sky
No I swear I won't shine without her
In the light of the moon
No I can't help but swoon
There's something about her
Forgive me if I go on and on about her charm
Something about her I don't know
She's my love love love love
She's my love love love love
She's my love love love love
