

The Math

Gabe Bondoc

I love those big brown eyes
That stare into mine
Seeing past all my doubts
Well, you're my piece of mind
No one to calm me down
As the world falls apart
Well you know my heart
Know where to start

Oh, I've been everywhere
And I've seen everything
And I've traveled miles and miles
Nothin' more than I need
The way you take my hand
As I fall off the path
Well you know the math
My other half

Oh no
I can't be myself with anyone but you
Oh no
I can't see myself with anyone but you
No, I won't take the hand of anyone else
But you
Anyone but you

I'm less than perfect I
Don't always win when I try
I've just been second choice
So many times in my life
But when you kiss my lips
Oh, everything is said right
I can't fight
Just in time
I'll tell you everything
Anything that you ask
You let me be myself
Do away with the mask
You touch my face and I
I can finally feel how it feels
To be real

Oh no
I can't be myself with anyone but you
Oh no
I can't see myself with anyone but you
No, I won't take the hand of anyone else
But you
Anyone but you

I can't see myself
Anyone else
Anyone, anyone, anyone
But you
I can't see myself
I won't take the hand
But you

Anyone but you
I can't see myself
Anyone but you
