

The One

Gabe Bondoc

The way you laugh
With your mouth closed
The way you smile
So your eyes glow
Between the way you look at me
So I can see just who I am inside

The way my heart doesn't listen
And so it just keeps wishing
Wishing you were close to me
So that it's beat
Will synchronized with yours

You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one for me, sugar

You're my hero and my best friend
And girl I swear
That you're a Godsend
Lovely as a ray of sun
The very first one
Just as the day begins

So I got a round trip ticket
But I don't wanna take it
Girl, I only wanna take half
And give the other half to
Somebody who won't waste it.

You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one for me, now

Your hand and mine
Fit perfectly fine
And sway below our waists
At the perfect height

Faithful and true
To Him and to you
I will stay
Forever this way because

You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one

You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one for me, now

You I can't believe it
No, I can't leave it lonely
I can't believe it

Oh baby cause
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one for me
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one for me, yeah
