

Song No. 7

Gabriel Rios

Once again love brought me to my knees
I was not looking for the answer,
I was trying to break free
And all those worn out choruses and songs were not for me when you got me looking like the only one I'm the only one
I'm the only one
Ain't no other man
no other story
now that you belong
To the only one
I am the only one
And you've been looking for me deep inside a broken song that no one else can even hear See I'm not buying all that mystery but I praise the gathering of consequences having me believe that a wise old wind came rolling in, shaking up the trees,
and saw you all the way to me saw you all the way to me You're the only one You're the the only one
Ain't no other man,
No other woman now that you belong
to the only one
I am the only one
And I'll be waiting for you here inside a broken song
that no one else can even hear Just like no one else ever will Oh, of all the pretty children picking up breadcrumbs Praise the sounds and siren calls that led you to myself Oh I no longer wonder why
