

Parallel Universe

Gabriella Cilmi

The scenery's killing me this wasn't supposed to be like this
Out of all the right words to say you had to pick the wrong one s

Now I'm sitting here trying to pick up all the pieces that we d ropped

On a parallel universe I would have said it first

On a parallel universe I'd do it differently
Like a carousel in reverse you'd come back to me

I can still picture you standing in front of me laughing
Whenever I tried to say what's on my mind
On a parallel universe I would have said it first

On a parallel universe I'd do it differently
Like a carousel in reverse you'd come back to me
If all of my thoughts meant nothing at all
Would you spare me a thought, would you spare me at all
Do I keep on letting you down

On a parallel universe I'd do it differently
Like a carousel in reverse you'd come back to me
If all of my thoughts meant nothing at all
Would you spare me a thought, would you spare me at all
Do I keep on letting you down