Independence Day

Gabrielle

For too long I was weak
Too weak to find my feet
I tried to hold it all inside
So you'd never realize

For too long I believed
That you were good for me
I closed my mind
To other possibilities

You tried to out my fire
Yes you did, yes you did
Then you took control of me, yeah

Maybe I was just too scared
Maybe what you're looking for is gone

'Cause, baby, I learned to love myself
I don't need no one else
Baby, can't you see that
I don't need your chains around me

You said that this was love
And it was just too much
I needed to be free
Your kind of love was killing me
Yeah, it's killing me

Well, people say I've changed
Yes, I don't feel the same
They say I have a glow
It's all because you're gone

I learned to love myself
I don't need no one else
Baby, can't you see that
I don't need your chains around me

It's independence day
Now I've found my way
I don't need your love
To prove that I'm somebody

Maybe I was just too scared
Maybe what you're looking for is gone

'Cause baby I, I learned to love myself
I don't need no one else
And baby can't you see that
I don't need your chains around me

You said that this was love
And it was just too much
I needed to be free
Your kind of love was killing me

Baby, baby

Your kind of love was killing me, yeah
Baby, yeah, oh baby, yeah
Your kind of love was killing me, yeah

I don't need no one else
Your kind of love was killing me, yeah
I just don't need it
Don't need you kind of love
Your kind of love was killing me, yeah

Oh, I don't need it, yeah
Yeah, it was killing me, yeah
