

Say What You Gotta Say

Gabrielle

Only you, to me have the key
Can it be, I'm dreaming?
Now you're here with me
I can't believe, tell me am I dreaming?

It's the right time, we both know
For you to be stepping back into my life
We wasn't happy, couldn't make it the first time
I'll always be thinking of, I'll always be dreaming of Only you

We did what we had to do
We said what we had to say
And with a last embrace
We just turned and walked away

We did what we had to do
We said what we had to say
Now that we're back again
We won't make the same mistakes

Only you, to me have the key
Can it be, I'm dreaming?
Now you're here with me
I can't believe, tell me am I dreaming?

I know it was the right thing to do
When we let each other go
If we were hurting and we had Nowhere else to go, if we just carried on
Let it go on and on, there'd be nothing else to build on

We did what we had to do
We said what we had to say
And with a last embrace
We just turned and walked away

It was then, I felt my heart breaking
'Cause we let each other go
For we couldn't see our future
Or what it had to hold

We did what we had to do
We said what we had to say
Now that we're back again
We won't make the same mistakes

Baby, if we take a chance
This time we can make it last
Sometimes love works, a second time around
That's what we're finding out

Only you, to me have the key
Can it be, I'm dreaming?
Now you're here with me
I can't believe, tell me am I dreaming?
