

You Used to Love Me

Gabrielle

I never thought I could not know.
Hard as I tried I'd have to let go.
I never dreamed how this would feel.
Torn at the seams.
And all is revealed.

And it's too late.
Baby, you've changed.
Yeah, yeah, yeah.

You used to love me,
But now you're not sure.
With my heart broken I leave through your door.
It feels like I'm losing myself again.
This time it's really over.

I always thought that we were strong.
But looking back, guess I was wrong.
Where did it change?
I still don't know.
Nothing remains.
Nothing to show.

And it's too late.
Baby, you've changed.
Yeah, yeah yeah.

You used to love me,
But now you're not sure.
With my heart broken I leave through your door.
It feels like I'm losing myself again.
This time it's really over.

Maybe you don't understand what I'm feeling.
I figured it out, the reason I'm leaving.

You used to love me,
But now you're not sure.
With my heart broken I leave through your door.
It feels like I'm losing myself again.
This time it's really over.

This time it's really over.
