

Farewell

Gaia Epicus

There is a voice deep inside, and it's telling me to go Far too long I have tried to heal, but I know it's time for a c hange

Hold on to your dreams, don't ever let them fade away
Because you only got one life
Even though I'm leaving here today, I won't forget about yester day
And you will always be in my heart
But this is farewell

All the years I spent with you, is something I will never regre t
Your memory will never die, but now it's time to say goodbye
