

Coconut Tree Tsunami (A Coctail)

Gaia Mesiah

I'm walking down the street called Coconut street
I'm sitting in the shade of coconut tree
Got ocean in my brain
And on my feet are heavy chains
And it's little bit dangerous

I listen to my mum on coconut beach
She's warning Don't be fool and get out of reach
Got ocean in my ears
I've never felt the fear
And it's a little bit dangerous

Blood and wine
Water and tears
The Earth is speaking
Our faults and fears

I'm weeping on the top of a coconut tree
I cannot see my friend he's under the sea
Got ocean in my eyes
Just praying ''Rasta never die''
And it's a little bit dangerous

I'm sleeping in my grave, got coconut dreams
My home is under the wave and people with me
Got ocean in their mind
And we are totally deaf and blind
It was a little bit dangerous

Just go and preach
What ocean can reach
What mother has sent
Is punishment
