

Eosphorus

Galadriel

I'm alone, the emptiness of my soul is tearing me into pieces I'm alone, the destiny has get my child out of my arms

Lonely I beat aound in the wind of grey everydays the days they will be never ever same again in this life

The tears made dead paths on my face the tears they don't flow but hurt my eyes are looking for your delicate grace over the walls of empty rooms

Lonely I beat around in the wind of grea everydays
again in this life

I'm trying to hear your laughter which made the fairy in you she doeasn't flap her wings anymore, she left this world with you.

There's only dust left in my palms in will fly in the wind following your gleeful laught she left this world with you.
