

The Last Time

Galadriel

Lords of winds bring the dark clouds over the skies
In the evening of our kind existence
There's the fear the passion the death in your deep brown eyes
And naked body's trembling in desire but in pain

While the storm rages on your lips are longing for mine
Our dirty sweaty skins and wounds entangled bodies

Kiss me it's the last time before the night (will) fall eternal
ly
Kiss me make my body burning insane
Burn me there's nothing else makes the sense but you and me
Burn me and wind will take our souls away

Desire
Extinction

I feel your breath your teeth and poisoned rain
Is burning deep inside of you - new death is burning

Kiss me it's the last time before the night (will) fall eternal
ly
Kiss me make my body burning insane
Burn me there's nothing else makes the sense but you and me
Burn me and wind will take our souls away
