

Fragments

Galloglass

Im witnessing strange occurrences
In the labyrinth of my mind

Persons and places I know
Appearing in abstract relations
Between visions and reality

Unconsciousness frees memories
That I won't remember awake
Hidden in unreal sceneries
Locked in the depths of my mind

Fragments of reality
That scene behind my eyes
If I only could remember
These pictures in my head
Fragments of reality
That scene behind my eyes
If I only could remember

The sensual world lies deep within
Burning in riot and in motion
The storm of pictures on the edge
Can't seize it with my rapid eyes

Fragments of reality
That scene behind my eyes
If I only could remember
These pictures in my head
Fragments of reality
That scene behind my eyes
If I only could remember

Fragments of reality
That scene behind my eyes
If I only could remember
These pictures in my head
Fragments of reality
That scene behind my eyes
If I only could remember
