

Different Eyes

Gallows End

Through the wasteland of my soul
I've been searching for the key
To why I'm trapped inside myself
When all I want is to be free

The mirror shows my face
But my eyes reveal the truth
Inverted joy of life
Lost in a broken dream

At last I'm free again to cast my shadow on the wall
How I've longed for this day
The colour's blinding me, I see the world with different eyes
It feels like I am born again

From now I'll never be the one
Who's left behind
The fruits of life I'll reap in joy
No more tears left to cry
