

Kingdom of the damned

Gallows End

10,000 years since she fell to sleep
Yet in the cold wind you can feel her breathe
Upon an ivory throne she embraced the sands of time
Knowing that one day, the time for her would come

Chorus:

She is the queen of the damned
You're just a puppet in her hand
She's the lady of the night
And as the stars align to mars
She will come back to us all
To raise a kingdom of the damned

And as she glanced the moon high above her head
She found the power to search into the minds
Premonitions of what must be done
Knowing that one day the time for he would come

Repeat Chorus

One day she will return to execute her plans
To make this world her own
An act of god she has in store for all of us
Against humanity she'll raise her deadly hands

Repeat Chorus
