

The end

Gallows End

I feel the end, it's closing in
It's just a feeling I have
Maybe it's too late to wonder why
Things went this way

And now I see the light in front of me
This must be the end
My life passes slowly before my eyes
As I bid life farewell

Have no regrets for the things I've done
'cause this is what I believe
I will not kneel or crawl for you
So just get out of my way, get out of my way

And now I see the light in front of me
This must be the end
My life passes slowly before my eyes
As I bid life farewell

And now I see the light in front of me
This must be the end
My life passes slowly before my eyes
As I bid life farewell
