

Just Because You Sleep Next To Me, Doesn't Mean You're Safe

Gallows

Pour some petrol
Through your letter box
Put all my memories
In an envelope

Then set it on fire
Then send it straight to you
When you get it
The least you could do

Is choke on the smoke
And let me breathe again
Because I know I never want to
Fucking, see you again

I watched you burning
With the keys in my hand
You were screaming, fucking, let me go
As you were turning black

The crowd go wild
And they signal applause
Well done for getting this far

Don't expect an encore when you
Choke on the smoke
Let me breathe again

Goodnight, sweetheart
Can you hear what I say?
I broke both your legs
You broke my heart today

You're lying in this bed
With your eyes tight shut
I'm lying next to you
Thank God I just woke up
