

The Riverbank

Gallows

Grey Britain is burning down we'll be buried alive, before we drown the queen is dead, so is the crown the shallow grave, fit for the ground stick your coffins in the riverbed where all our sins are laid to rest set alight to the flag we used to fly god help us now, we are ready... to die