

Leaving Hell

Gamma Ray

Come on down into the basement of my temple I show you things I cannot even tell the fallen dreams that were made of good intention wherever people got their soul to sell A Romeo is standing bleeding in the corner He cannot die, he cannot live alone the dagger in the hands of one desperate woman oh Juliet, why couldn't you forgive Oh no, here it comes again
my mind is set for freedom now
so let the ball begin
let the ball begin
Leaving Hell
I'll build a new tomorrow
say farewell
'cause you can't lock me in
Time to go
I'm leaving without sorrow
kiss my Ass goodbye
'cause we will never meet again
And now my ship is leaving for the open water I set my course toward the island in the sun and if I die no one can say I haven't tried to keep my dream alive when I was on the run and I say oh, here I go again
my mind is set for freedom now
so let the ball begin
let the ball begin
Leaving Hell
say farewell
'cause you cannot lock me in
Time to go
I'm leaving without sorrow
kiss my Ass goodbye
'cause we will never meet again
I say oh, here I go again
my mind is set for freedom now
so let the ball begin
let the ball begin
Leaving Hell
say farewell
'cause you cannot lock me in
Time to go
no, never again!
I'm leaving Hell
