

I Watch The Moon

Gandalf

Did you ever take a look at the sky when the stars don't seem shy If you did you'd see the face of someone who won't look at the sun
Everynight I'm in my room
Wondering where to throw my stone
Everynight I Watch The Moon
Can't you see I'm all alone

When the patterns of the clouds blowing by cross the light then I die When the heaven's deeper blue turns to black then you know I won't be back

Everynight I'm in my room
Wondering where to throw my stone
Everynight I Watch The Moon
Can't you see I'm all alone
