

McDonald's cashiers in a country where cows are sacred
Porsche cars, sales, in a land where people walk

McDonald's cashiers in a country where cows are sacred Porsche sales, executives, in a land where most people walk

So patient, lay your head down
And so within the hour
So don't let the meds out
Give me for love too much

In a land where most people walk
