Nobody Loves You

Watching the days slip by so fast Knowing our fate has long been cast Working our fingers to the bone Cause nobody loves you when you're gone, gone, gone, gone

Coughing up feeling just for you To find something real to hold on to But there is a hole inside my heart Where all of my love comes pouring out

You know you'll always be my man But grab yourself sweetness where you can Cause sooner or later we're gonna die Left to the dogs under the sky

I cracked a piece of broken glass I cracked a piece of broken glass

Coughing up feeling just for you To find something real to hold on to But there is a hole inside my heart Where waves of my love come tumbling out You say that all the good is gone That I have forgotten who I am Free as a bird Wild as the wind But somehow I cannot let you in
