

The Chemicals

Garbage

Our Jesus wouldn't save my soul
He checked out when he lost control
The end of the world we can never save
The complicated things that drive us both insane

The ghosts in the back of your eyes
The sparks in the dark when they come alive
I give myself to a higher power
Every time I crawl inside

I need your heaven
I need your heaven
I'll do anything you ask me to
Heaven, I need your heaven
I can't wait till the moment that I surrender to

The chemicals, the chemicals
The chemicals, the chemicals
The chemicals, the chemicals
The chemicals, the chemicals...

Aphrodite's siren smiles
She steals anything she likes
Everything you never said
Everything you never did
Everything you fantasized

The ghosts at the back of your eyes
They don't miss a beat when they come alive
Give yourself to a higher power
Every time you crawl inside

You're seduced by Surrendered to
Seduced by
Surrendered to

The chemicals, the chemicals
The chemicals, the chemicals
The chemicals, the chemicals
The chemicals, the chemicals...
