

Sentimental

Gareth Gates

Girl I don't believe them when they tell me you don't love me sometimes you seem to think so little of me everybody tells me that they see what's going on so quick to criticise that what we have is wrong see you with another and I dunno what to do
cos the problem is that I love you

I get sentimental (yeh)
baby please be gentle baby please put my mind at ease I get sentimental

yehhhhh heyyyyy

you make me unstable but I like it never knowing where I stand but then I hide it the games that you play and the things that you say and I really need to know you got me completely I have fallen so deeply so baby please don't let me go

I see you with another
that I love you
you know that I love youuu

baby please put my mind at ease

you got me completely I have fallen for so deeply baby please don't let me go

baby please put my mind at ease
I get sentimental
