

Talking Minds

Gareth Gates

Empty noise, instead of sound,
Quiet thoughts are getting loud,
Patience let her lie
Waiting gives you time

If you think you'll find the answers in their eyes
If you speak the silent language of the mind
Are talking minds, are talking minds...

Heavy words fall to the ground,
Dying pictures in wars of sound,
Patience let her lie
Waiting gives you time

If you think you'll find the answers in their eyes
If you speak the silent language of the mind
Are talking minds, are talking minds
Are talking minds, are talking minds...
