

That's When You Know

Gareth Gates

For everyone, the story goes
There's a special someone
To make them whole
Someone to give their heart completely

And you may search high and low
But when you find your angel
How will you know?
Then you finally get that feeling
It'll be as clear as the air you're breathing

That's when the world feels small beneath your feet
It's when the stars above are only just out of reach
When you feel you're alive
For the very first time
And there's nothing that you can't rise above
That's when you know that you're in love

Who can tell the time and place
When you see your soul reflected in their face
It would be a spell you're under
And it'll hit you just like thunder

That's when the world feels small beneath your feet
That's when the stars above are only just out of reach
When you feel you're alive
For the very first time
When you hold them in your arms and can't let go
And that's when you know

For all my life
I have been searching for something that I couldn't find
But now I know you are the one
I understand I read the signs

'Cause now the world feels small beneath my feet
And all the stars above are only just out of reach
When you feel so alive
For the very first time
And there's nothing that you can't rise above
That's when you know that you're in love
That's when you know
