

Beautiful Regret

Garou

Even when she sleeps
She dreams a smile
You'll wonder where She's gone to now

Every word she speaks
She'll catch your breath
She'll start to weep
But laugh instead

Even when it rains
She's dancing there
She can walk on air
If she wants to, if she wants to

'cause it's all to make you crazy for her
And the world is just a playground for her - yeah
Try to make her yours
She'll run and hide
When it's way too late
You'll realize, you'll realize

'cause it's all to make you crazy for her And the world's a great big playground for her
She's a beautiful, beautiful regret 'cause even when she's gone
Vanished into air
You'll be holding on
I've been there, I've been there
'cause it's all to make you crazy for her
And the world is a great painted playground for her
yeah
'cause it's all to make you crazy for her, for her
A great big playground for her
yeah
