Beautiful Regret

Even when she sleeps She dreams a smile You'll wonder where She's gone to now

Every word she speaks She'll catch your breath She'll start to weep But laugh instead

Even when it rains She's dancing there She can walk on air If she wants to, if she wants to

'cause it's all to make you crazy for her And the world is just a playground for her - yeah Try to make her yours She'll run and hide When it's way too late You'll realize, you'll realize

'cause it's all to make you crazy for her And the world's a gre at big playground for her She's a beautiful, beautiful regret 'cause even when she's gone Vanished into air You'll be holding on I've been there, I've been there 'cause it's all to make you crazy for her And the world is a great painted playground for her yeah 'cause it's all to make you crazy for her, for her A great big playground for her yeah
