

Heart And Soul

Gary Go

So your life is on fire
And you tried to put it out with me
Well I'm sorry, I'm sorry
Everything is everywhere and I don't know who to be,
But I won't let this world unbalance me

There's nothing to stop us
From losing it all
So follow your heart and soul
'Cause nothing will matter
Nothing at all
If you don't follow your heart and soul
Nothing will matter any more

We get so easily distracted
We forget where we set out to go
Well it's OK, it's okay
When everything is everywhere and you don't know what to do
Don't ever let this world unbalance you
It took some time to realise
But it just occurred to me
That what we have is what we choose to see

Well there's nothing to stop us
From losing it all
So follow your heart and soul
'Cause nothing will matter
Nothing at all
If you don't follow your heart and soul
Nothing will matter any more

There's nothing to stop us
From losing it all
So follow your heart and soul
'Cause nothing will matter
Oh nothing at all
If you don't follow your heart and soul
So follow you heart and soul
Follow you heart and soul
Follow you heart and soul
Nothing will matter any more

Oh there's nothing to stop us
From losing it all
So follow your heart and soul
Or nothing will matter anymore
