

Honest

Gary Go

When this all settles down
I'm gonna turn it all around
I'm tired of trying to dig myself out of holes
Only to wind up deeper under the ground
When it all is settled down

I've gotta stop
I've gotta stop
Putting it off
I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot
It's not a lot
What will it cost?
If I am honest

So you think we can tamper with fate
If we can, I think its too late
Was starting to make so much sense
But, things change as quick as the click of the fingers,
There's no defense.
When will all this settled down

I've gotta stop
I've gotta stop
Putting it off
I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot
It's not a lot
What will it cost?
If I am honest

I'm tired of hiding
There's no more room
To keep any secrets

And I don't wanna dim your life
I just wanna do what's right
The truth is all I have to give, yeah
I know

I've gotta stop
I've gotta stop
Putting it off
I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot
It's not a lot
What will it cost?
If I am honest
