

Speak

Gary Go

I don't wanna fall asleep
Cause I don't wanna wake up here again
If I could hear myself speak
I don't think I'd talk a word again
I've not got a words with way
I've not got much to do or say
Nobody let me in
I'll never finish so why begin

Give it some time
Give yourself hope
Or I'll give you mine
Cause I don't need it any more

There's no accounting for taste
Lets agree to disagree
I'm a good person going two ways
You can leave but I've got to live with me

Give it some time
Give yourself hope
Or I'll give you mine
Cause I don't need it any more

I'm sorry I spoke
Had all my eggs in one basket
It broke
But I don't need them any more
Oh I tried
This will has run dry
Do you fall a thousand times before you fly
Time goes by
Been living a lie
Gotta fall a thousand times before we fly so...

Give it some time
Give yourself hope
Or I'll give you mine
Cause I don't need any more

I'm letting it go
I know what I like
And don't like what I know
Cause I don't know me any more

I must be crazy to beat me, Must be crazy to beat me X8

I'm letting it go
