

Sundown

Gary Moore

One-two
Rollin'
Okey, sundown

Hm, hm

You know late one evenin',
I went out to the outskirts of town
Late one evenin',
I went out to the outskirts of town
And I chose me a seatin',
Watched the evenin' sun go down

I say little girl,
You know you done broke my heart
Little girl, little girl,
You know you done broke my heart
And it's so sad to say
That the best friends have to part

You know I wake up soon in the mornin'
And I'm feelin' sick and bad
Yes, I wakes up soon in the mornin'
And I'm feelin' sick and bad
I'm thinking 'bout the good times
That I once have had

Little girl, little girl,
Your little trouble comin' home one day
Little girl, little girl,
Your little trouble comin' home one day
You're gonna be sorry
For treating poor me this way

You know people don't seem to like you
When you try to be lovin' and kind
People don't seem to like you
When you try to be lovin' and kind
One day they're comin' after you
And you'll be done change your mind

You know the blues is a weird, old heart disease
You know the blues is a weird, old heart disease
Well, it seems like you try to love somebody
And they're so hard to please

You know the sun is goin' down
Behind that old western hill
The sun is goin' down
Behind that old western hill
Well, I never practised nothin',
But I guess my little baby will
Hm-hm.
