Ancients

Gary Numan

All I know is you're not with me, Like me. Some can shine, Some can fly, Some are glorious, Some are ancient. Some are wise, Some are strong, Some are everything You could dream of. Some are clouds, Some are rain, Float like angel wings On an ocean. Some can sing Songs of Gods, Words so beautiful They fall like raindrops. But none are like me, All I know is you're not with me, Like me. Some will cry, Cry for you, Take your pain away When you're sleeping. Some will die, In your name, Give their soul to you For safe keeping. All I know is your not with me, Like me.
