

Even for a While

Gary Valenciano

Why do hearts feel the way they do
Why does men wanna say that I love you
Till the end of time
Till I lose my mind
Till it's over and left so far behind

I just can't keep it all inside
So unbelievable how much I've tried
Yet I call for you
I long for you
And I say the words I wish you'd want to here
Though you're never here

Chorus:

Our hearts and though they beat as one
But in time, the time for us will never come
So I, I just go on
And just remember those eyes
That look right through my heart
The smile that shows what's in you
That makes me wanna cry
Coz I know
I'll never have you even for a while

Now all is said and done it seems
I keep remembering what I would call a dream
Where you came true
For a minute or two
That was all the time it took
To make me know you had to go

Repeat Chorus

Cause I know
I'll never have you...
And I know
I'll never have you
Even for a while...
