

In Another Lifetime

Gary Valenciano

I could hold on for a hundred years
When all else is gone
I would still be here
In a memory of things yet unseen
I'd remember all that we've never been
And I cannot wait to see
What life has in store for me
In another lifetime
It would be forever
In another world
Where you and I
Could be together
In another set of chances
I'd take the one's I'd missed
And make you mine
If only for a time
My life would matter
In another life
And I'd stay as strong and I'd stay as true
And you'd have forever now to think it through Coz I believe what wasn't meant to be Wasn't meant for now and Someday you'll see
In a place and time we never know
I'd be standing there waiting for you
You would be mine
But until that time is now
I'd be holding on somehow
But until that time
I'll be holding onto forever
Until another life
