

You Gave Me Reason

Gary Valenciano

So many tears that I've cried so many nights asking why why all my dreams fell apart and letting go is so hard

I held my pain deep inside i thought that love was a lie i felt it might be too late i saw it all fade away but then

You gave me reason to love again you came and changed the way the story ends you'll always be here in my heart endlessly

And now my dreams have come true i found myself there in you and all the things that i missed i found them here in you kiss baby

You gave me reason you're all i need you showed me love and now my heart believes you you made me see you gave me reason to be

[repeat chorus 1 & 2]
