I'm a poor, I'm a rich I'm a mountain, and a ditch I'm a dagger, and a shield I'm impatient, I'm a yield And I wanna be free Wind in my hair Salt on my skin Sun in the air I have to feel love Holding on me I'll give you everything that you would ever need I'm the fight and the dance I am heartbreak and romance The feather and the stone I feel crowded and alone And I wanna be free Wind in my hair Salt on my skin Sun in the air I have to feel love Holding on me I'll give you everything that you would ever need And every once in a while I wanna sit back and enjoy the view I'm feeling my senses But woman my life has been surrounded by fences But I found some that I could see through I could see through And I wanna be free Wind in my hair Salt on my skin Sun in the air I have to feel love Holding on me I'll give you everything that you would ever need Everything that you would ever need Everything that you would ever need
