

Break the Silence

Gaz Coombes

I am living
With Achilles
At the marvel, open your eyes
They don't like it
Blow the whistle
On the fakers, you can be anyone

But the higher the climb, the harder the fall
You've got a feeling you can no longer hold
Behind blue eyes it's plain to see
You've got a secret you can no longer keep

Break the silence
Come on, let it go

Climbing mountains
Over oceans
In a heartbeat you can be anywhere

But the higher the climb, the harder the fall
You've got a feeling you can no longer hold

Break the silence
Come on, let it go
Let them fall

Break the silence
Come on, let it go (break it)

Break the silence
Come on, let it go

Break the silence
Come on, let it go
Let them fall
